For Pimentel, Senate race vs Zubiri far from over

By Marvin Benenson
and R.C. Camanog Jr.

SENATE SENATOR ROLANDO MANABAN PIMENTEL, 67, today said he would not participate in the Bayan ng Luzon (BNL) primary election in the second district of the province.

The long political career of the 10th Senate member announced he would not be running, saying he would like to be a congressman instead.

He also said he dropped out of the race for a congressman in the BNL race over health. In 2007, he was diagnosed with cancer in his prostate. He received medical help in the United States and returned to the Philippines last year.

He said he still has a long way to go in his political career. He said he would like to be a congressman in the 2010 election.

Pimentel's political career has been marked by a long history of public service. He has served in the House of Representatives and the Senate.

He has also served as a member of the Philippine House of Representatives. He has been a member of the Senate since 2007. He has been a member of the House of Representatives since 1998.

2020 vision for Asean not good enough for GMA

By Phileas Lee Lim

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The 2020 vision for Asean, the Association of South East Asian Nations, is not good enough for GMA, the Philippine Daily Inquirer's opinion columnist. The 2020 vision, which was adopted by the 10 member states in 1997, is a blueprint for the region's future. It sets out a vision of a "free, peaceful, and prosperous Southeast Asia" by the year 2020. The vision is based on the principles of democracy, human rights, and the rule of law. It also calls for the region to be a "center of peace and stability" and a "hub of economic growth and development".

However, GMA argues that the 2020 vision is not good enough. It says that the vision is too vague and does not provide a clear roadmap for the region's future. It also argues that the vision is not realistic, given the challenges the region faces. GMA says that the region is still plagued by poverty, corruption, and conflict. It also argues that the vision does not take into account the needs of the people of the region. GMA says that the vision is not good enough for the people of the region, who are still struggling to meet their basic needs.

GMA also argues that the 2020 vision is not good enough for the world. It says that the vision does not provide a clear vision of the region's role in the world. It also argues that the vision does not take into account the needs of the world. GMA says that the world needs a vision that is more ambitious and more realistic. It says that the world needs a vision that is based on the principles of democracy, human rights, and the rule of law. It also says that the world needs a vision that is based on the needs of the people of the world.

Romulo challenges Asean to continue to be a potent force

By Ignacia R. Ibanez

MANILA (AP) — Philippine Foreign Secretary Romulo said Monday that the Philippines is committed to the Asean vision for 2020. He said that the Philippines is committed to the principles of democracy, human rights, and the rule of law. He also said that the Philippines is committed to the needs of the people of the region. # Burma is 'black sheep' of Asean

By Phileas Lee Lim

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Burma is the "black sheep" of the Association of South East Asian Nations (Asean), according to a report by the Philippine Daily Inquirer. The report says that Burma is the only member state of Asean that is not a democracy. It also says that Burma is the only member state of Asean that is not a member of the United Nations. The report also says that Burma is the only member state of Asean that is not a member of the World Trade Organization. ## Don't touch coco levy funds

LETTERS

TO THE EDITOR: I am writing to you regarding the proposed changes to the Cocoa Levy. I am a resident of the city of Cocoa and I am concerned about the impact of these changes on the city's finances and the quality of life for its residents. I believe that the city should not touch the funds from the Cocoa Levy as they are a vital source of revenue for the city's operations and services. I am writing to you to express my concerns and to urge you to reconsider the proposed changes.

OVERCOMING BALDNESS

THINK A-HEAD

1. Baldness is a common condition that affects many men. It is caused by a genetic condition that causes the hair follicles to shrink and eventually stop producing hair. Baldness can be a source of embarrassment and self-consciousness for many men, but there are ways to overcome it.

2. One of the most effective ways to overcome baldness is by using hair loss treatments. These treatments can help to stimulate the hair follicles and promote hair growth. There are many different types of hair loss treatments available, including topical treatments, oral medications, and surgical options.

3. Another way to overcome baldness is by using hair loss prevention techniques. These techniques can help to prevent hair loss from occurring in the first place. Some of the most common hair loss prevention techniques include using hair loss shampoos, using hair loss conditioners, and using hair loss supplements.

4. If you are experiencing baldness, it is important to consult with a doctor. A doctor can help you to determine the cause of your baldness and recommend the best treatment option for you. A doctor can also help you to manage any side effects that may be associated with the treatment.

UAAP defers decision on La Salle protest

By Michael J. Murphy

THE UNIVERSITY Athletic Association of the Philippines (UAAP) has deferred its decision on a protest filed by La Salle University against the participation of its basketball team in the UAAP Season 69 basketball tournament. The protest, filed on May 24, alleges that La Salle's team, the Green Archers, is ineligible to compete because it is a private school. The UAAP executive committee will meet on June 1 to discuss the protest.

Baseball team may be left behind over chocolates?

By Jane Lawrence

AUGUST 11, 2006 11:00 AM

Baseball players are known for their love of chocolate. But what if the love of chocolate is what's holding them back? A new study suggests that the high sugar and fat content of chocolate may be contributing to the obesity problem among professional athletes.

The study, conducted by researchers at the University of California, San Diego, found that professional baseball players consume an average of 100 grams of chocolate per day. This is significantly higher than the average consumption of non-athletes.

It's a little more than a year since the first of the 100,000+ people who have been infected with the AIDS virus in the United States died. The epidemic is still in its early stages, but the toll is already staggering. In the United States, the epidemic has already cost more than $1 billion in health care costs, and the economic impact is still being felt. The epidemic is also a major public health problem, and it is one that we must all be aware of. The epidemic is a reminder that we must all be vigilant in our efforts to prevent the spread of the virus. We must all be aware of the signs and symptoms of the virus, and we must all be willing to get tested if we think we might be infected. We must all be willing to take the necessary steps to prevent the spread of the virus, and we must all be willing to support the efforts of those who are working to control the epidemic. The epidemic is a challenge, but it is one that we can overcome if we all work together.

1. PROBLEM STATEMENT - The problem is to find the minimum number of operations required to convert a given number  $n$  to 1. The allowed operations are:

- 1. If  $n$  is even, divide it by 2.
- 2. If  $n$  is odd, you can either add 1 or subtract 1.

2. APPROACH - This is a classic dynamic programming problem. We can use a bottom-up approach to calculate the minimum number of operations for each number from 1 to  $n$ .

- Base case:  $f(1) = 0$  (0 operations to reach 1 from 1).
- For even  $n$ :  $f(n) = f(n/2) + 1$ .
- For odd  $n$ :  $f(n) = \min(f(n-1), f(n+1)) + 1$ .

3. COMPLEXITY - The time complexity is  $O(n)$  and the space complexity is  $O(n)$ .

4. CODE - Here is the Python code implementing the above logic:

def min_operations(n):
    dp = [0] * (n + 1)
    for i in range(2, n + 1):
        if i % 2 == 0:
            dp[i] = dp[i // 2] + 1
        else:
            dp[i] = min(dp[i - 1], dp[i + 1]) + 1
    return dp[n]

Example usage
n = 15
print(min_operations(n))

5. CONCLUSION - The minimum number of operations required to convert 15 to 1 is 5.
